

 $f > f^*$ (entire search space, never expanded)

 $f = f^*$ (some nodes are expanded)

 $f < f^*$ (all nodes are expanded)

 Optimal solution

In the final plateau ($f=f^*$, $h=0$), applying an action does not increase the solution cost

